Practice 1.3

The positions of Chairman and CEO are held by different individuals.

| | | |
|--|---|---|
| Application | : | Applied |
| Explanation on application of the practice | : | There is a clear division of responsibilities between the Executive Chairman and the CEO/Group MD. The separation of the two positions in the company promotes accountability and facilitates division of responsibilities so that Management decisions are made in order to ensure independence. Tan Sri Dato' Seri H'ng Bok San, the Executive Chairman is primarily responsible for running the Board and to ensure that the Board accepts full share of responsibilities of governance. He is also responsible for the integrity and effectiveness of the relationship between the Independent and the Non-Independent Directors. The Executive Chairman normally ensures that the Board as a whole plays a full and constructive part in the development and determination of the Group's strategies and policies, and that Board decisions taken are in the Group's best interests and fairly reflect Board's consensus. This includes among others, to ensure the strategies and policies agreed by the Board are effectively implemented by the Chief Executive and the Management of the Group. Datuk Seri Kenneth H'ng Bak Tee, the CEO/Group MD is responsible for the day to day operations of the Group. In addition, his responsibilities include among others, reporting, clarifying and communicating matters relating to the daily operations to the Board and to ensure the business, policies and strategies formulated by the Board are implemented effectively with the assistance from the Management Team. The Board Charter clearly defines the responsibilities of the Chairman and the CEO/Group MD respectively. |

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

| | | |
|--|---|--|
| Application | : | Adopted |
| Explanation on adoption of the practice | : | The CEO/Group Managing Director is the designated person on sustainability and is assisted by senior management including the head of department and managers of all divisions of the Group. Together with the Board, the Group is always exploring ways to reduce carbon footprint of the company operation and manage sustainability matters in environmental, social and governance aspects. The sustainability initiatives are shown and illustrated under the Sustainability Statement of the Annual Report 2021. |

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Application | : | Applied |
| Explanation on application of the practice | : | The Board through the Nomination Committee has conducted annual assessments based on competency, preparedness, commitment and experience to determine the effectiveness and contribution of each Individual Director (including those seeking re-election), each Committee and the Board as a whole. A formal evaluation process was conducted at the end of 2021 as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Directors' peer evaluation; • Board and Board Committee performance • Assessment of Independent Directors Evaluation forms were distributed to all individual Directors to perform appraisal and evaluation in the form of anonymity and returned to the Company Secretarial Department for compilation. The evaluation process was based on a peer-review assessment whereby the Director assessed other Directors, the Board as a whole as well as the performance of the Board Committees. The criteria and outcome of the assessment were properly documented. Based on the recent assessment, the Nomination Committee was satisfied that the Board size and its composition are optimum as the Board comprises individuals with the requisite skills, knowledge, experience, characteristics and competencies to effectively discharge their roles. The Directors, Board Committees and key officers discharged their responsibilities in a commendable manner and contributed to the overall effectiveness of the Board and Company during the year. |

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

| | | |
|---|---|--|
| Application | : | Departure |
| Explanation on application of the practice | : | |
| Explanation for departure | : | Though the Board believes that tenure should not form part of the independence assessment criteria, the Board practices and undertakes annual assessment of its Independent Directors based on the experience and personal qualities more particularly integrity and objectivity of each individual Director to ensure the current Independent Directors are able to exercise independent judgments and act in the best interest of the Company. In appreciating the spirit of the Code in order to embrace and support a strong corporate governance culture throughout the Company, the Board continues to provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process for all the Independent Directors who have continued to retain as Independent Directors for more than 12 years. Notwithstanding the long tenure of the Independent Directors, the Board believes that the long tenure may not erode the Board's objective since all the Independent Directors are able to express their views and question the Board's decision, debate constructively, challenge rigorously and decide dispassionately. The following Directors who have served as Independent Director for a cumulative period exceeding twelve (12) years have been subjected to re-appointment through a two-tier voting process at the 57th AGM held on 28 June 2021 are:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dato' Lai Chang Hun• Mr. Chew Hock Lin• Dato' Ismail Bin Hamzah• En. Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

| | | |
|---|---|--|
| Application | : | Applied |
| Explanation on application of the practice | : | The Board acknowledges the important of age, nationality, professional background and gender diversity and recognises the benefits that such diversity can bring. The Company will work towards addressing this as and when vacancies arise and suitable candidates are identified. Succession planning of the senior management and potential candidates from within and outside the Group are also being sourced and identified to train and groom them to take heavier responsibilities. The Nomination Committee is responsible to lead the process for the nomination of new Board appointments and making the necessary recommendations. | Explanation for departure | : | Currently, the Board relies on recommendations from the Nomination Committee and existing Board members, management or major shareholders. The Nomination Committee is currently responsible for making recommendations to the Board on the most appropriate Board size and composition. The Nomination Committee will determine certain criteria used in the recruitment process based on annual assessment of Directors. Candidates are thoroughly assessed based on their competence, integrity, character, time commitment and experience as stated in paragraph 2.20A of the Main Market Listing Requirements by Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad. The Board is satisfied with the outcomes of the evaluation of its existing Directors and is of the view that it is not necessary to appoint an independent third party to conduct the evaluation process. Due to the challenging market conditions amid COVID-19 pandemic and in consideration of cost saving as the main factor, the Board decided to opt not to utilise any independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates for the time being. |

| | | |
|--|---|--|
| Application | : | Departure |
| Explanation on application of the practice | : | |
| Explanation for departure | : | Notwithstanding the Board acknowledges the best practice of MCCG 2021 to comprise at least 30% women on board for Large Companies, Board decisions are made objectively in the best interest of the Group taking into account diverse perspective and insights. The Board is also of the view that diversity should be in tandem with expertise, skills and experience but not gender alone. Thus, the Board is of the view that it is important to recruit and retain the best available talent regardless of gender, ethnicity and age in order to maximize the Board's effectiveness. |
| | | The Board is aware that women's participation in decision making positions should not be focused on Board positions alone, but also be broadened to include women in senior management as the same benefits apply. The Board believes that diversity, when extended to senior management, will also serve as a talent pipeline for Board candidacy. Therefore, women representation on the Board and senior management will be taken into consideration when vacancies arise. |
